FAQ's

When is the best time to visit Australia?

It's always a good time to go backpacking in Australia! It's generally quite hot in most parts of the country for the majority of the year except for the southern half of Australia during winter (June, July & August). But because Australia is such a big country when it's cold down south most people will head north and follow the sun!

Do many people travel alone?

Yes. In fact most people who do Oz Intro are travelling solo. So it's a great way to meet people and make friends to travelling around Australia with!

What luggage do you recommend?

We always recommend travelling with a backpack and packing light! 15-20kgs of stuff should be plenty. Australia is a BIG country so dragging around a huge suitcase is not much fun.

What is a Working Holiday Visa?

A Working Holiday Visa allows you to stay in Australia for up to 12 months. You are legally allowed to work with a WHV for each employer for up to 6 months, or 12 months in two different locations. Once your visa has been approved you have 12 months to use it. You must be aged 18 – 30 to get a WHV. Or 18-35 if you're from Canada or the Republic of Ireland.

Can I extend my Working Holiday Visa?

Yes. If you do 88 days of seasonal work in regional Australia, you can apply for a 2nd WHV. You can use your 2nd WHV at any time before your 31st birthday (or 35th birthday if you're from Canada or Ireland). We'll give you lots more info and help with 2nd Year visas during Oz Intro.

Do I need a certain amount of money to enter Australia?

You should have sufficient funds to support your trip. If you're on a WHV or have a return ticket out of Australia, then it's unlikely you'll be asked to show evidence of your funds. If you're on a Tourist Visa or only have a one-way ticket then you might be asked to show a bank statement when you land in Australia, so it's a good idea to have at least $3,000 AUD.

What's the best way to access my money?

If you're on a WHV then we'll open up a local Bank account for you. So we recommend transferring your money into your new Aussie bank account. That way you'll avoid international bank fees. If you're just travelling and don't plan on working it's best to take a Visa or Master Card debit, credit or travel money card. There are ATM's available throughout Australia so it's easy to get access to cash and most places accept credit card.

Is it easy to find work in Australia?

By doing Oz Intro you'll get unlimited help & support to find a job in Australia. Not just during Oz Intro but for the entire time you're in Oz. You'll also receive 12-Months Membership to our Oz Jobs Program, which includes unlimited access to our network of employers all over Australia through our Oz Jobs App, where we post lots of great jobs every day!

What is the average wage in Australia?

Obviously this will vary depending on the type of work you're doing. The most common backpacker jobs such as Bar Work, Office/Admin, Construction or Farm Work generally pay around $18-25 AUD per hour.

What should I expect to pay in rent in Australia?

After Oz Intro most people will go on to stay in a hostel, a shared room in an apartment or a private room in a shared apartment. Rent will range from $150-$300 AUD per week depending on the type of accommodation and the area you're in.

What is Medicare?

Medicare is the Australian National Health system. The Australian government has a reciprocal agreement with certain countries including the UK, and many European Nations meaning people from those countries can get access to Medicare which includes subsidised medicine and medical treatment in Australia. We'll organise your Medicare membership for you during Oz Intro.

That's about it for now.
